Doing Business with the National Guard 101

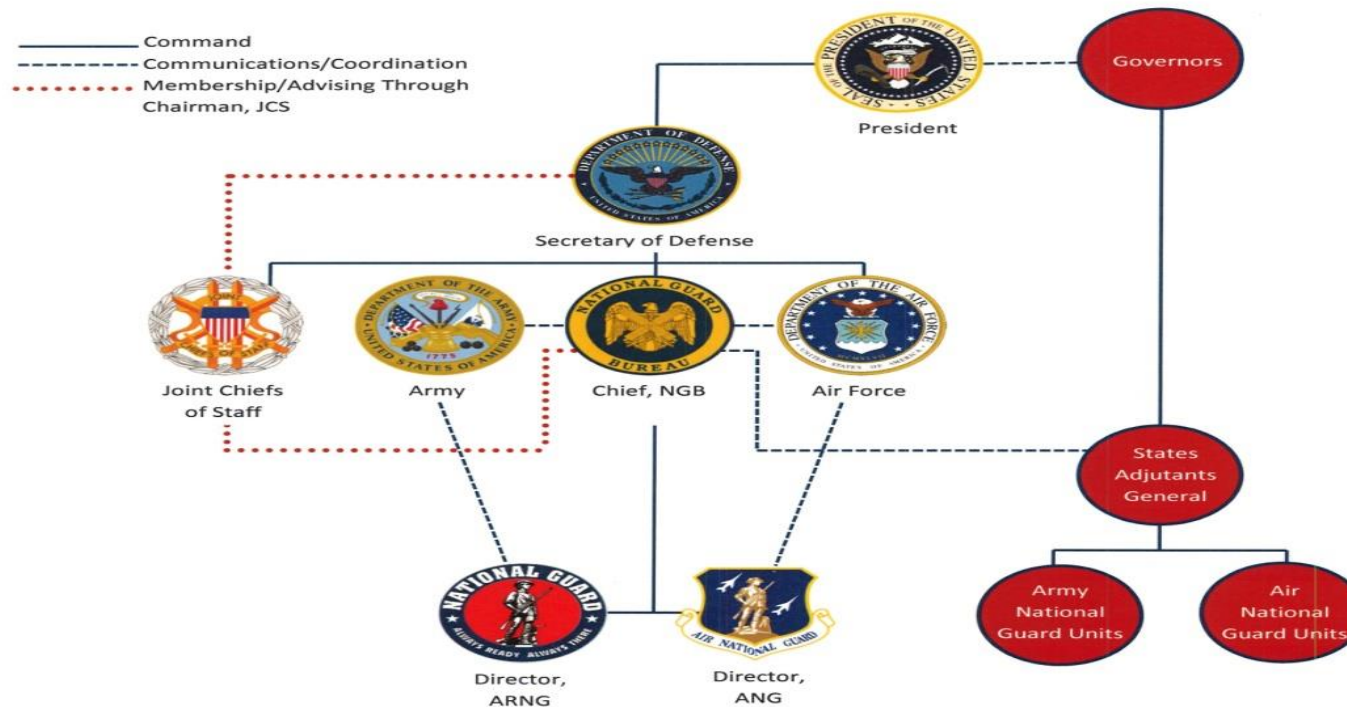

National Guard Overview

- The National Guard has been defending the nation for over 386 years
- There are 54 separate National Guard organizations in the 50 States, 3 Territories, and the District of Columbia
- The National Guard is a “Dual Status” organization with a Federal and State mission
- The Federal mission is to serve as the operational reserve component of the Army and the Air Force
- The State mission is to respond to domestic and homeland security emergencies under the Command and Control of the Governor.
- Currently there are 330,000 Soldiers in the Army National Guard and 106,700 Airmen in the Air National Guard.
- The Army Guard is in over 2,600 communities across the nation

The Role of the National Guard Bureau

- NGB is:
 - defined as a joint activity of the Department of Defense
 - led by a Four Star General who serves on the Joint Chiefs of Staff
 - serves as the channel of communication on all matters pertaining to the States
 - oversees the allocation and use of all federal funding provided to the States, Territories and the District of Columbia

Associations

- NGAUS- National Guard Association of the United States.
- EANGUS- Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States.
- AGAUS- Adjutant's General Association of the United States.

National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS)

- NGAUS is a professional non-profit association and lobbies on behalf of the officers of the Army National Guard.
- NGAUS develops their legislative priorities through the development of resolutions that once submitted by the various states are voted upon by the national membership at the NGAUS annual conference. These priorities are published and released each December at the NGAUS Industry Day.
- NGAUS Task Forces are special committees appointed by the NGAUS Chairman of the board to assist the NGAUS Legislative team on processing and prioritizing state submitted resolutions. Corporate members participate in Task Force meetings.
- NGAUS received corporate input through the NGAUS Corporate Advisor Panel.
- State Associations meet in the February through July timeframe.
- NGAUS holds an annual conference in the August-September timeframe. This year the annual conference will be held in Reno, NV, 18-21 .

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States (EANGUS)

- EANGUS is the only military association that concentrates solely on the enlisted members of the Army and Air National Guard both active and retired. It represents the 350,000 plus enlisted Soldiers and Airmen of the National Guard to ensure they have the proper equipment on hand to perform both their Federal and State mission.
- EANGUS also lobbies the Congress for benefits for all members of the National Guard and coordinates their efforts with NGAUS and AGAUS.
- Most state association meetings are held between February and June. Some are separate from state NGAUS conferences and some are held jointly.
- EANGUS holds an annual conference in August. This year the conference will be in Rochester, MN, 13-16 Aug 2023.

The Adjutants General Association of the United States (AGAUS)

CAP

Corporate Advisory Panel

- AGAUS represents the senior leadership of the Army and Air National Guard of the 54 States, Territories and District of Columbia.
- AGAUS is committed to a central leadership role in promoting and supporting an adequate state and national security, the efficiency of the Army and Air National Guards of the respective states, and in facilitating and improving the administration of the National Guard affairs through the agencies of the Department of Defense and the several states.
- AGAUS is committed to ensure the National Guard is organized, equipped, and postured to fulfill their responsibilities across the full spectrum of operations.
- AGAUS meets twice yearly at the AGAUS Annual meeting in June and the AGAUS Mid-winter meeting in February.
- AGAUS will meet in Arlington, VA Feb 2023 and summer in Hawaii in June 2023
- Industry is welcome to attend.
