

HAZELL BOOKER

Foundation Welcomes New ‘Legion’ Members

The National Guard Educational Foundation (NGEF) welcomed three new members of the Legion de Lafayette—one state association, one corporation and one individual—at the National Guard Memorial in Washington, D.C., March 8. The honorees included (from left) retired Col. Ray Jardine, representing the Hawaii National Guard Association; Chris Small, representing Arrowpoint Corporation; and Van D. Hipp Jr., who is also chairman of American Defense International Inc. They were formally welcomed by (far right) Maj. Gen. R. Martin Umbarger, NGEF and NGAUS chairman. Legion membership is reserved for only the foundation’s largest benefactors.

