

NGAUS

February 2023

SUBJECT: 2023 NGAUS Awards Program

The Adjutants General of all states; the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Guam; Presidents and Secretaries, State National Guard Associations; State Public Affairs Officers; (Information Copies to Non-AG members, NGAUS Board of Directors, Chief National Guard Bureau and President and Executive Director, EANGUS)

1. To read the current version of instructions (purpose & procedures, criteria and description) for the NGAUS Awards Program, please go to on the NGAUS website at www.ngaus.org/awards. A list of past recipients is also available on the website.
2. The deadline for the receipt of nominations for all 2022 NGAUS individual awards is May 15.

Nominations should be addressed to the attention of:

NGAUS Awards Program
One Massachusetts Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

Particular attention should be paid to the criteria for each award and the presentation of factual reasons why the individual deserves the award.

3. The NGAUS point-of-contact is Rich Arnold at 202-454-5301 or richard.arnold@ngaus.org.

J. Roy Robinson
Brigadier General, AUS (ret)
President