"If you had to bet on one country that is best positioned today to extend its influence with partners and rivals alike, you wouldn't be wise to back the U.S. The smart money would probably be on China."

- Time Magazine 2017

“Show me one soldier who has ever been in a war that wants another. But I don’t want to go into another armed with a pea shooter when the other fellow has a rifle ... time is reckoned now in minutes and hours instead of months and years, and in a future war that time will not be available.”
